MELBOURNE
CERAMICS MARKET

Summer Market 2022

Melbourne's first independent ceramics market is back after a two year hiatus! With our biggest line-up ever, Melbourne Ceramics Market is back at a new venue in Brunswick East on Saturday 26th & Sunday 27th November!

After the last two years of lockdowns, mask restrictions and venue capacity rules, MCM is back- just like old times! With a highly curated collection of over 50 ceramic artists, this event brings together a mix of emerging and established makers.

This summer's market offers ceramic enthusiasts the chance to meet their favourite makers face-to-face and choose from a wide range of sculptural and functional works. And after years of restrictions, this is a wonderful opportunity for makers to meet and greet their customers and connect with the public!

Over two days, MCM has a diverse collection of Melbourne's finest ceramicists, alongside a local coffee truck and florist! Curated to give ceramic enthusiasts a chance to discover new makers and grow collections of established makers, this market is not to be missed!

Time – Sat: 10am – 4pm / Sun: 10am till 4pm
