

PD: EDUCATOR WORKSHOP

Embedding sustainability and environmental learning into everyday experiences in early childhood

Merri-bek
City Council

A practical session providing easy-to-implement activity ideas to engage children in learning about and caring for the environment.

In partnership with Merri-bek City Council, join the Little Sprouts Program ® founder Carolyn Luder, for an engaging, practical training session for Early Years educators working in Merri-bek Services.

During this session, Carolyn will provide inspiration and achievable examples to intentionally develop children's agency to make a difference in their own environment and communities. This session links to several Quality Areas particularly:

QA 1 Intentional teaching

QA 3 Physical Environment

QA 6 Collaborative Partnerships with Families & Communities

QA 7 Governance and Leadership

About the presenter:

This workshop is presented by Carolyn Luder. Carolyn is a scientist and creative. She has led environmental education programs for over 20 years.

Carolyn is the founder of the Little Sprouts Program. Little Sprouts provides specialised education services and resources to help support young children and early childhood educators to explore, connect with, appreciate, and care for the environment. She is known for delivering easy-to-action tips, tools and inspiration grounded in real-world experience.
