Access to free and low cost food boxes is available in Merri-bek at the following locations.

Merri Food Hub

Merri Food Hub stands for food security and working towards a more sustainable food system. The focus is on providing an affordable, safe and consistent supply of culturally relevant fruit and vegetables to Merri-bek residents and seeking partnerships with growers and suppliers who are local and who use environmentally sustainable practices as a priority. Produce is available to be ordered online at cost and if you would like a free fruit and veg box, please get in touch to pre-order, as there are only a limited number of boxes available each week. Free boxes can be collected from the Senior Citizens' Centre at 77 Jukes Road, Fawkner on Fridays between 12 pm and 5 pm.

Cost: free and low cost (dependent upon item)

NECCHI Newlands Neighbourhood House

20 Murray Rd, Coburg North VIC 3058

NECCHI has partnered with Feed You Farm and Friends to provide fresh veggies each week. Feed You Farm grows tasty vegetables in healthy soils on Wurundjeri Country and will be bringing you produce from other local farmers too. The bags will include seasonal veggies, herbs and salads and can feed 2-3 veggie-lovers over a week. Example bags include 5-7 items such as: winter salad mix, parsley, spring onion, bok choy, radishes, carrot, kale, rainbow chard, coriander, and spinach.

Cost: $30 bag – full price, $10 bag – sponsored

Wholefoods Unwrapped Collective

During December 2022 through to February 2023 we will be running food relief markets where we will offer free food boxes to those in need. You can order online (or attend our shop in person) and choose the items that you need from our wide range of multicultural food products and market fresh fruit and vegetables. If you live in the Brunswick area and would like to be a part of this, we would love to meet you! Please reach out by contacting us at wucbrunswick@gmail.com and we will let you know exactly when the markets are open.
