

PRIMARY SCHOOL STATISTICS

975 STUDENTS BETWEEN YEARS 3-6 FROM 9 DIFFERENT PRIMARY SCHOOLS ACROSS MORELAND.

STRENGTHS

88%

care about school.

84%

have a teacher who cares and encourages them .

82%

are involved in at least one extra-curricular activity.

AREAS TO GROW

45%

have an understanding of self.

63%

have problems they wish would go away.

48%

have a positive identity.

Young People's ideas to support their well being

"Help protect the Earth"

"Donate money to people in need and donate to kids who need school supplies"

"Help younger people find confidence"

"Make sure everyone has someone they can talk to even if that may be an online service"

"Help everyone have an equal chance and a voice in things"

"Better school facilities"

"Stronger ties to the community and neighbourhoods"

Schools and agencies can apply for, or auspice young people to apply for a community grant to tackle these issues here: https://tinyurl.com/uyux8po

RESILIENCE SURVEY 2019 SNAPSHOT

FEMALES

When compared to their male counterparts, females struggled more with:

- Mental Resilience
- Maintaining a healthy body.
- Positive Identity
- Feeling good about themselves without being critical.

In particular, females in high school struggled more with:

- Maintaining a healthy mind.
- Talking about things that upset them.
- Feeling low in energy.
- Having a poor appetite/overeating.
- Feeling anxious or depressed.

MALES

When compared to their female counterparts, males struggled more with:

- Trying hard and caring about school.
- Doing their homework.
- Staying out of trouble.
- Physically threatening people.
- Maintaining a positive relationship to school.
- Being engaged in learning.
- Believing they have a teacher who believes in them and gives them clear rules.

In particular, males in high school struggled more with:

- Playing online games and gambling online.